“EVERYONE PRAYS IN THEIR OWN WAY.” – INSPIRED FROM A DUKE ELLINGTON QUOTE

NOVEMBER 2 IS JAZZ SUNDAY!

Join us in either the 9:15 or 11:00 am services to be inspired by jazz and improvisation as a way of spiritual expression, expression of emotions and thoughts, dreams, desires, fear, hope, love, hate, and an expression of freedom, and tying that in historically, being the 50th anniversary of the Civil Rights Movement – looking back to then and comparing it to now.

Kevin McCullough and the Praise Band will definitely knock your socks off at the 11:00 am service.

Don't miss this fun event!

FEATURING:

Ren Geisick - vocals

Jamie Dubberly - trombone

Kevin McCullough - piano/musical director

Private event - Wedding
Private event - Bosco's Wedding
Watsonville, CA

Honored to be invited (and also invited to bring my piano) to this occasion! For the last several years, Bosco's been taking me under his wing, calling me up for a tune or 2 on Afro-Cuban jazz gigs, and eventually calling me for them, jamming on various styles in his studio, drinking beer and eating delicious food. Eventually he told me I could introduce him as my Godfather. :) I can def. say in the 6 or so years I've know him, I've never seen him so happy or in love. Can't wait for the wedding, as well as the jam session to follow!

Unka Funk Reunion Big Band - 2-6pm

Hayward, CA

Frank "Unka Funk" Sumares was one of the greatest educators, pianists, mentors, and role models that one could ask for. Before his sudden passing in the Spring of 2013, a reunion of many of his old students - many of who played in his award-winning, world touring Chabot College Night Band in the 70s and 80s that he led - was planned. A year later, the reunion band is back on track, thanks to his loving, equally as charming, hilarious, and encouraging (as Frank was) wife, Donna Lee Sumares, and the help and dedication of a few of those former students. When the opportunity arose to be a part of this, I gladly jumped in, and am honored to be a part. I would say rest in peace, Frank, but I know with you up there it'll be a swingin party, and I could only imagine the banter and music being made by you and the rest of the greats up there. But I do miss you, as well being able to swing by your office or call you up for advice.

Shortel Battle of the Bands! - 8pm
San Jose, CA
Price: Private?

Shortel Communications started a "Battle of the Bands" team building workshop back in May? I think. The company's branches across the USA rented instruments, stands, cables, etc, and hired private teachers to come and train their employees how to play!

So since then, I've been blessed to be teaching piano/rock n' roll piano to some of the employees, as well as coaching band practices when they all started meeting.

This has been, and continues to be a fantastic journey, and I can't wait for the final concert this December! Don't anyone try and book me for that night, because it is TAKEN! :)

- headlining Saturday at the Church St. Fair @ Cabrillo Music, Art, and Wine Festival.

Sat 8.4 & Sun 8.5 11am - 8pm

Church Street outside the Santa Cruz Civic Auditorium

Saturday and Sunday, August 4th and 5th see the return of Cabrillo Festival's popular Church Street Fair - a festival of music, art & wine. Celebrating its 21st year, the two-day "festival within the Festival" offers an inspiring reflection of the arts in Santa Cruz. The weekend bursts with non-stop world and ethnic music and dance on the outdoor Church Street Stage, and dozens of premier artists and craftspeople selling their treasures all along Church Street in front of the Civic Auditorium.

Never is the spirit of Santa Cruz more alive than on the Church Street Stage when the spotlight is focused on Santa Cruz's exceptional musicians. Audiences will travel the globe with musical voices from Mexico to Ireland, Africa to Cuba, and dance traditions from the Middle Eastern to European classical ballet, American modern and urban hip hop. Some groups make their Church Street Stage debut, and many are old favorites returning for the fun.

Hosted by KUSP programmer Brett Taylor, the 21st annual Church Street Fair is a collaboration between the Cabrillo Festival and the Santa Cruz Civic Auditorium.
